The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pernet (US 5,860,821).

Pernet discloses a switching terminal comprising: a carrier strip (2); a first terminal (5) extending from an edge of the carrier strip; and a second terminal (4) extending from the edge of the carrier strip, being substantially parallel to the first terminal and having a cutout defined in an edge (in right edge) thereof adjacent to the first terminal.

Regarding claim 2, Pernet discloses the first terminal comprises a first retaining portion connecting with the carrier strip, a first contact section (22) and a first base section (between the retaining portion and the contact section) connecting the first contact section with the first retaining portion.

Regarding claim 3, Pernet discloses the second terminal comprises a second retaining portion connecting with the carrier strip, a second contact section (free end)
